Cuomo wants "all states to be treated the same." But all states aren't the same. Some are being hit hard by the Chinese Virus, some are being hit practically not at all. New York is a very big "hotspot", West Virginia has, thus far, zero cases. Andrew, keep politics out of it....

President Trump's decision to declare a national emergency over the #coronavirus pandemic is the right call.

It will free up much needed resources and allow for a more flexible and aggressive response.

We are going into a war with a deadly virus led by a President who is serial liar and bigot who calls COVID-19 the "#ChineseVirus" to give red meat to his base and whose only concern his entire life has been what is good for him personally. What could go wrong?!

A lot have, but you have to understand that revenue is about 20% of what it normally is with take out and delivery..

That's the problem, these places have 30 employees each, whom they now can't pay and don't need, and are making 20% of what they used to daily..

Cuomo wants "all states to be treated the same." But all states aren't the same. Some are being hit hard by the Chinese Virus, some are being hit practically not at all. New York is a very big "hotspot", West Virginia has, thus far, zero cases. Andrew, keep politics out of it!

We should do the same. Expel "foreign" journalists, like from CNN, Wapo, NYT, etc

I mean, these clowns can't be Americans, right?

When we threw God out of the United States, our constitutional Republic went with it. You can only have "inalienable" God-given rights if you believe in God. As a nation, we don't, and we won't, anymore. But a day is coming, with a new King, who will demand justice.

Once we, in the USA, get past this immediate coronavirus concern, I think we need to have an adult conversation about BSL-4 Labs & their activities engineering novel viruses & bacteriological agent combinations with Gain-Of-Function tech.

Obviously this is a common sense issue here. This is not for folks that are getting a refund. Most of those folks have already filed. This is for small business owners, and those who owe taxes.

When we threw God out of the United States, our constitutional Republic went with it. You can only have "inalienable" God-given rights if you believe in God. As a nation, we don't, and we won't, anymore. But a day is coming, with a new King, who will demand justice.

News from the you won't find anywhere else!

The US Surgeon General says the average age for death is 80 years old and children and young adults are MORE LIKELY to die from the flu.

So how come we never shut down society to protect children from the flu?

This news is in fact everywhere

Flu already has treatments, vaccines and herd immunity. Until we have this for we've to stop the spread as much as possible.

This isn't political. We shut down the pubs. On Paddys Day. It's to save lives.

৬৪ ০ ১০৮

Candace Owens @RealCandaceO ১৯ মিনিট

If 750 million to 1 billion are infected with the flu annually how the hell is that herd immunity?

15 million were infected by January 7th.

To be clear I recognize coronavirus is different from the flu, but do not make it

I never thought of it as discriminating to be concerned that some group of people engineered a DNA biased virus
There's at least evidence it was something being worked on.
I feel bad for a targeted group & angry at the creators, if it's true is that discrimination?

As of Feb 21st 280,000 people had been hospitalized for the flu this season. If hospitals weren't overwhelmed by that, how can they be overwhelmed by a few thousand COVID 19 cases? I don't get it.

Not to mention the fact that $500 billion of that is a tax cut.

How does the left get away with characterizing tax cuts as expenditures?

Ask yourself this question:

Is there a hospital in the United States that is "overrun" with Coronavirus patients?

I don't know. But if there was, CNN would be doing 24/7 parking lot coverage. Spot lights. Tater live on scene.

This is serious. But these TV people are insane.

We also need to thank our people that grow and pick our food. We need to thank our healthcare workers. We need to thank our utility workers. It really puts a perspective on what is important to supporting everyday life.

I never thought of it as discriminating to be concerned that some group of people engineered a DNA biased virus
There's at least evidence it was something being worked on.
I feel bad for a targeted group & angry at the creators, if it's true is that discrimination?

Yes that's why increased takeouts and delivery will help that..

The places are literally making 20% of what they used to make daily.

They don't have a need for employees or payroll like that because of the slow business.

I'll say it again, Cuomo has handled this better than any Governor in America..

He's praising Trump right now and they are working together to help this nation.

It's nice to see bipartisanship working, unlike the negative racial divide in a pandemic like the media is spreading!

Guess who doesn't give a sh*t if Bernie Sanders stays in the race or not?

THIS GUY

He can't win either way. The DNC won't let him, and Trump will Curb Stomp Him.

This is laughable that his supporters think he has a chance

It's tough for tens of millions of Americans right now.. I've spoke to many who have lost jobs today while out and about.

One was a dishwasher at a local restaurant, another was a daycare teacher.

As Americans, now is the time to lift our neighbors up, not drag them down!

Many Asian American doctors are also on the frontlines and treating patients in clinics, hospitals, ERs, and through telemedicine. They deserve to be able to help their patients and fellow Americans without worrying about being accused of having the "Chinese Virus" as you call it.

Eugene Gu, MD @eugenegu · 3시간

If you live in California or Texas, our team of doctors, many of whom are Asian American and went to Stanford, are giving free telemedicine visits to arrange for free coronavirus testing and triage whether you need to go to the ER. We're in this together.

I only signed the Defense Production Act to combat the Chinese Virus should we need to invoke it in a worst case scenario in the future. Hopefully there will be no need, but we are all in this TOGETHER!

Stop calling the coronavirus the Chinese Virus. You're trying to make this into an acceptable term for all Americans to use by relentlessly tweeting about it in defiance of so many Asian Americans like me who are telling you to please stop out of concern for our safety

Already many Chinese Americans are suffering and have been attacked in hate crimes across America. Asian Americans of all nationalities are getting bullied and have to watch their back when they go outside to get groceries or essential care during this perilous time

This is completely false, I worked for a Fortune 500 Trucking Company for years... Drivers DO NOT have set break times..

They are doing all they can to keep products on the shelves..

Places are Drive-Thru Only, So they can't even use the bathroom or get served food right now. twitter.com/MiskwahyaAgwam …

They have log rules to follow, breaks happen, but are not at any set time. I would like to see the 70 hour rule suspended and let the driver decide when he needs a break. By eliminating the 70 hour rule they can continue driving a full day after they run out of hours.

We are required to have a 30 minute break within the first 8 hours of work, and can only drive 11 hours in one 14 hour period.

Two weeks before the hysteria hit I stocked up on medicine for the kids, multivitamins, and Vitamin C. Started them on it then. No way I could stock pile enough food for 7 people for a month, so did best we could to get staple items for a few weeks and left it at that.

My only issue with ordering from these people is that I am worried they could somehow contaminate my food. After all the videos I've see of people licking ice cream in stores, etc., how do they prevent this? They need a seal or something on all delivered food. Just a thought.

Seeing the American flag in this picture breaks my heart. That a city in the USA has to ask its citizens to shop shooting each other to free up hospital beds is not the America our Fathers fought and died for. It's something else, but it's not America.

This is the real reason the Dem leadership can't stand the truth & the exposer of that truth - Donald J. Trump. I have said it before and will say again, Trump is 'the POTUS and world leader of the 21st century'. And one issue of TIME magazine has since adopted my view!

My only issue with ordering from these people is that I am worried they could somehow contaminate my food. After all the videos I've see of people licking ice cream in stores, etc., how do they prevent this? They need a seal or something on all delivered food. Just a thought.

So you're in a closed door government briefing.

You get a tip about the Coronavirus and what it's going to do to certain industries in America.

Then you sell the stocks you have in those industries to avoid the losses that average Americans take

My Dad couldn't find 9mm ammo anywhere... He did however find toilet paper after not seeing it for 10 days..

We just swamped a box of ammo for some TP..

Welcome to the Bartering society of 2020 America :)

Toilet paper prices remain the same. 9mm prices sky rocket what's up Patriots? Why are you price gouging your own? Local dealer here tripled ammunition prices and won't sell you a gun without you buying ammo as well.

So you're in a closed door government briefing...

You get a tip about the Coronavirus and what it's going to do to certain industries in America..

Then you sell the stocks you have in those industries to avoid the losses that average Americans take.

Okay with this America?

Soon enough we won't even be able to drive around in our cars. I haven't left this house in eight days. I've got plenty of housework to keep me busy, working in the yard. I'm doing my part.

Imagine this scenario: virus peters out, Trump takes credit for killing virus, Trump uses cash infusion to offset economic shutdown to disparate benefit of working class & economy roars back to re-election. How long before media claims pandemic was all a Trump conspiracy theory?

"Physical distancing" is the correct term. You don't have to "socially" distance yourself. You can still be "social" on social media. Stop using this social distancing

This decision, like the others before it to close our schools and the industry that is the lifeblood of NV, was incredibly difficult to make. But we must grasp the gravity of our new reality as we battle this invisible enemy. If #HomeMeansNevada to you. #StayHomeForNevada.

I understand where you are coming from @RealMattCouch the problem is that a lot of people don't have an assurance of income so people don't know what to do. The shutdown is worse than the virus. The fallout could be unlike anything we've seen. #nobailouts

Marketing is my thing. Restaurants and many other businesses need to go to a membership-based business model ASAP so they have income in tough times. This way they have income whether or not someone walks in the door or no. Buy one get one, free bottle of wine whatever. Action

#WuhanVirus is in China. Trump poll numbers are reflective of the American people - that's all that counts. You were calling him a RACIST when he shutdown the borders to China. Soon after "abroad" closed their borders. #POTUS is a great leader. He's winning. Y'all are losing.

So when do those that own restaurants and bars ask how it's okay for grocery stores and retailers to be packed with people but they can't even be open with 50% capacity.

Asking for all of my friends closing their doors..

Businesses that supply life saving necessities should be the last to close. If/when they shut down, panic & civil unrest will likely ensue, that would have to be timed with a national shut down. Non essential business closing sucks but will help mitigate the problem. Strategy.

Completely disagree. When China pushes propaganda, US officials must speak out clearly. Asking US officials to stay silent is odd. Social media is how we communicate with the public. I'll keep doing it.

#WuhanVirus is in China. Trump poll numbers are reflective of the American people - that's all that counts. You were calling him a RACIST when he shutdown the borders to China. Soon after "abroad" closed their borders #POTUS is a great leader. He's winning. You'all are losing.

I'll address this.. Takeout isn't cutting it as all restaurants for the most part will close in a week.

They're making 15% of what they used to and when you don't buy in bulk costs go up..

Millions more will close at this rate it's not sustainable with takeout only..

What I mean by buying bulk is inventory for the restaurants. Since volume is way down, they can't or don't need to buy in larger bulk which of course makes costs of goods go up.

They can't afford staffs and bills at this rate.

Why aren't retail and grocery stores constantly wiping down counters and credit card machines, bagging areas.

This should create tons of jobs for sanitary purposes alone, right retailers?

What if we swap with the grocery sacker? Ask them to come unload the groceries from the cart while we sack them with our reusable bags ourselves? Would that be safer?

So when do those that own restaurants and bars ask how it's okay for grocery stores and retailers to be packed with people but they can't even be open with 50% capacity.

Asking for all of my friends closing their doors..

You have a million people touching the checkout counters, CC machines, carts, etc. Yet in a restaurant or bar if best practices of wiping counters, hands I think is preferable. Only dirty thing might be doors, seats, cash & the pens at sign out.

I'm talking to many locally owned restaurants around the country. The takeout business alone is not even enough to keep the doors open... we have to up the volume if we want to keep these places available to eat at during this crisis

I'll address this.. Takeout isn't cutting it as all restaurants for the most part will close in a week.

They're making 15% of what they used to and when you don't buy in bulk costs go up..

Millions more will close at this rate it's not sustainable with takeout only..

What I mean by buying bulk is inventory for the restaurants. Since volume is way down, they can't or don't need to buy in larger bulk which of course makes costs of goods go up.

They can't afford staffs and bills at this rate.

They can't support inventory and payroll at this low of volumes. Unfortunately you will see the majority of restaurants in America close in a week. They're literally at 15% of normal sales...

Governors ordering mandatory stay-at-home orders and closing restaurants.

Perhaps it's time to start acting like fucking Americans and telling these governors to EAT SHIT!

Hate to break it to you, but there comes a point when destroying the economy outweighs catching the flu.

Paul Sperry @paulsperry
Dr Fauci's mistaken. There in fact have been "clinical trials" on the efficacy of using Chloroquine for treating patients w COVID-19. Trials w control groups conducted last month on 100 patients in 10 Chinese hospitals. Results:Chloroquine far superior to the control treatments

The President of the United States constantly calling the coronavirus the "Chinese Virus" as Asian Americans are subjected to hate crimes and beaten on the streets is unconscionable. It will all go down in history as the craven acts of a racist demagogue. This is Trump's legacy.

Eugene Gu, MD @eugenegu · 36m

Trump is wearing down everyone's outrage about calling it the Chinese Virus. Soon the mainstream media won't even care anymore because they'll just be desensitized to it. With less clicks and views to be made, they'll move on while Asian Americans suffer great harm in silence.

I don't think it is appropriate to silence opinions when we are making decisions like "shelter-in-place" and closing schools. People should be free to debate how policies are impacting their lives.

They're making 15% of what they used to and when you don't buy in bulk costs go up.

Millions more will close at this rate it's not sustainable with takeout only.

23 100 443

Matt Couch @RealMattCouch · 15h

What I mean by buying in bulk is inventory for the restaurants. Since volume is way down, they can't or don't need to buy in larger bulk which of course makes costs of goods go up.

They can't afford staffs and bills at this rate.

Good thread @RealMattCouch. Some restaurants are also packaging "meals" in bulk for purchase, cooked and ingredient packs. More or less acting like a grocery store selling the ingredients of a meal. That has helped sales. See @PlayersLockerLV for example

I'm going to lose my shit if one more Mainstream Media outlet reports that China hasn't had a case in four days.

This is China... They NEVER tell the truth... Yet our Media literally is acting like the information they get from China is accurate..

If you're 65 or older and live in CA, TX, or FL, I'm offering free telemedicine visits to evaluate you for the coronavirus and, if medically necessary, arrange for free home testing so that you don't have to endanger yourself of others going to the clinic.

Eugene Gu, MD @eugenegu · 4h

We're a group of physicians from many races and backgrounds, including many Asian American physicians and we are providing free telemedicine as a public service. So please please stop calling the coronavirus the "Chinese Virus." We are human beings and just want to help people.

Again you're missing the point... We would have had the virus here MONTHS AGO... Not just now it's almost April... We didn't restrict travel until Jan 20...

Something isn't adding up... Virus started in October/November and millions traveled for Chinese New Years..

I wonder how many Chinese restaurants Warren has ordered take out from in the last few weeks? That is an action that would be helpful rather than this dumb topic of hers

When Bill Buckley invented conservatism in the early 1960's, Americans still felt a patriotic duty to manufacture, buy and hire American. So why is the conservative movement now a cult of globalist economics?

Private equity people and lobbyists subverted it for their profit.

Why aren't retail and grocery stores constantly wiping down counters and credit card machines, bagging areas.

This should create tons of jobs for sanitary purposes alone, right retailers?

I got takeout today from a well known chicken chain and, from my car when I got to the window, watched a worker hug two people, high five one, and do a little thing like a "pinkie swear" with the young lady who took my money and then handed me my food. I don't get it.

I went thru Popeye's today. There were only about 4-5 employees including the manager. I saw face masks, gloves & smocks. They appeared to be very careful about handling food, bags, boxes, etc..
Good job, @PopeyesChicken

For everyone with large brain capacity commenting with "they have food"... No Shit? I wasn't aware I just live where Walmart is headquartered.

I'm asking as Kohl's, Burlington, Children's Place & others close, why is Walmart still allowed to sell EVERYTHING, not just essentials?

I am sorry for the 16,000 who have lost their lives to this virus, but let's have a reality check.

On a global scale for a pandemic, 16,000 is nothing. The CDC estimates the seasonal flu will kill 500,000 globally this year.

And yet, NOTHING closes for the flu.

I'm beyond pissed. [illegible] signed an exec order for anyone coming from NY/NJ to self-quarantine for 14 days. These damn snowbirds will bring their [illegible] infestation to our state. Like they'll abide by the law & quarantine. Come on, Gov, wtf are you thinking?

Aren't the snowbirds already there? That's a serious question. I thought they usually head south by Christmas if not before, to miss most of the Northern winter.

In blocking the coronavirus package the Democrats just made a legacy mistake. History will remember this.
